Educational and Professional Background (As of 2/1/05)

Gary Stern, D.O. is a psychiatrist in private practice in Phoenix, Arizona. A native of Pawtucket, Rhode Island, Dr. Stern moved his family to the Phoenix area in 1998. After graduating from the University of Rhode Island with his Bachelor of Arts in Psychology he earned his osteopathic medical degree from the Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine in Kirksville, Missouri in 1980. He then completed his Internship at Warren General Hospital in Warren, Ohio.

In 1980 he entered active duty with the U.S. Air Force. He served as a Flight Surgeon for nine years. In 1990 he completed his Residency in Psychiatry at Wright-Patterson in Ohio. He served seven years as the Medical Director of Mental Health Clinics at bases in Delaware, and then Arizona. He retired from the Air Force in 2001.

After leaving the Air Force he took time off to write about the different psychologies in psychoanalysis. In 2003 he went into private practice. Dr. Stern practices general psychiatry and psychoanalytic psychotherapy for adults. He works 100% of his time in an outpatient, private practice setting. He accepts most health insurance plans for diagnostic evaluations, medication management, and psychotherapy.
